

Governance Policies – Declarations of interest by members

The Trust has adopted a policy of requiring individual members to advise a meeting of any issue before the Trust likely to benefit them or their family either directly or through their membership of a community. They are then required to absent themselves from the room when that matter is discussed and voted on.

Both the advice received from members and their absence from the room during the discussion is minuted.