

Governance Policies – Native Title

The Trust will not seek to become a party to any existing or future native title claim within the area of its jurisdiction. As with other statutory authorities and government agencies it will automatically be represented in any negotiations or litigation arising from a native title claim by the State through the SA Attorney-General's Department.