

Community Support – Public benefit and equity

The Trust seeks to generally provide assistance in ways that will maintain (as far as possible) equity between all residents within its area. Funds invested are aimed at recognising public benefit (as opposed to private benefit) and are intended to provide access to benefits for the wider group in any situation.

Private benefit or private consumption of services will not be subsidised by the Trust and equitable self-funding arrangements will be encouraged.